About the DVD

WHO: Nationally recognized pediatrician, Dr. Jay Gordon, M.D., empowers parents as they navigate the labyrinth of immunization options for their children. With plain speak and humor, Dr. Gordon presents facts, current research and the experience of decades in private practice so parents and caregivers can make informed decisions, not based on fear, but sound information.

WHAT: In this two-hour seminar, Dr. Gordon addresses the science and medical solutions to one of the most frequently asked questions: “Which vaccinations are best for my child and when and how is the safest way to schedule them?” He also discusses the personal and public health controversies that challenge today’s parents and gives them the tools to make the best possible decisions for the health and well being of their child and family. Dr. Gordon reinforces the importance of breast-feeding as a child’s frontline defense against disease and provides other natural approaches to naturally boost immunity.
